Liberating Lesson

In today's lesson, the prophet Hosea experiences the same relationship God had with Israel. As Christians, we must avoid the temptations of the world and live for God, who desires a faithful relationship with each one of us. All blessings come from God, but we cannot worship the blessings. We must always strive to sustain a faithful relationship with God.

Liberating Lesson

Although we sin, God loves us and desires to have an intimate relationship with us. When we sin, we create a barrier to our relationship with God. As believers, we must not compromise with the standards of society. We are accountable to God. The world may be selfish, but we stand on the foundation of our Heavenly Father, who is able to sustain us. We base our standards on the Word of God, our “instruction book” for life.

Application for Activation

Set a standard that exceeds worshipping wealth materialism, they are tools not gods. Believers can make a difference when we pray to God for direction and take action. God We must set our standards according to God's Word. Seek God's guidance in discussing trends and standards of the world. Give God's response to the things that keep us from being faithful to Him.
